Here are some tips on how to use flash cards effectively:

- Start with a few cards at a time. Don't overwhelm your toddler with too many cards at once. Start with just a few cards and gradually add more as they become familiar with the alphabet.
- Say the letter name and sound. When you show your toddler a flash card, say the letter name and sound clearly. For example, when you show them the card for "A," say "A for apple."
- Encourage your toddler to repeat the letter name and sound. Once you have said the letter name and sound, encourage your toddler to repeat it back to you. This will help them to remember the letter.
- Make it fun! Learning the alphabet should be fun! Sing songs, play games, and make up stories to help your toddler learn the letters.
