

Collection of the Greatest Sooner Stories Ever Told: Tales From The Team

Oklahoma Sooners football is a tradition unlike any other in college sports. With a rich history dating back to 1895, the Sooners have won seven national championships, 44 conference championships, and produced some of the greatest players and coaches in the game. In this book, you'll find a collection of the greatest Sooner stories ever told, as told by the players, coaches, and fans who lived them.

From the early days of the program, when Bennie Owen led the Sooners to their first national championship in 1956, to the modern era of Bob Stoops and Lincoln Riley, Oklahoma football has been a constant source of pride for the state of Oklahoma. In this book, you'll find stories about some of the most iconic players in Sooners history, including:
